FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: September 16, 2015

(CPD # 15-18362-OF)

CONCORD, NH – On September 15, 2015 at approximately 12:00 PM, police officers from the Goffstown Police Department, Concord Police Department, Manchester Police Department and the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office executed search warrants at the following two locations:

1. EZ Computer & iPhone Repair
591 Mast Road
Goffstown, NH 03102

and

2. EZ Computer & iPhone Repair
202 South Main Street
Concord, NH 03301

The search warrants were the result of a months-long joint investigation between the Goffstown, Concord, and Manchester Police Departments pertaining to alleged criminal activity occurring within the businesses. It is alleged that large volumes of stolen property were being bought and sold at the businesses which also serve as pawn shops as well as doing phone and computer repair.

The search warrants also alleged that in several instances the property in question had been stolen during residential burglaries or thefts from local businesses. Items found at the Goffstown location included a firearm listed as stolen out of another New Hampshire community, as well as a cell phone and some home repair tools reported stolen out of Goffstown, among other items.

Prior to the execution of the search warrants, an arrest warrant had been issued by 9th Circuit Goffstown District Court on an affidavit by police charging the owner of the businesses, identified as

"Community Committed"

Kyle Perkins (Age 23)
Concord, NH

Perkins is charged with

2 counts of Receiving Stolen Property (Class A Misdemeanors)

Perkins was arrested at the Concord location at the time of the search warrant and he was later turned over to the Goffstown Police Department. He was processed by GPD and released on $1000.00 cash bail. Perkins will be arraigned on December 8, 2015 in the 9th Circuit Goffstown District Court.

Goffstown Police anticipate that Perkins will also be charged with Receiving Stolen Property on the stolen firearm case as well. That charge would be a Class A Felony because a firearm is involved.

Concord PD had also issued an arrest warrant for a store employee who was also arrested at the Concord location. He is identified as

Chad Fennessey (Age 23)
Allenstown, NH

Receiving Stolen Property
